

I am opposed to the petition from the Indiana CBA to allow them to circumvent the current Indiana Do-Not-Call rules. If I want them to contact me by phone I think it is my right to so chose but not have a blanket rule that allows them free access without any choice by me. The existing Do-Not-Call rules work and my home is not being invaded by marketing groups that I do not want contact from.